

The Time is Always Now - A Curated Showcase of Art and Design in Copenhagen

True to tradition the fair The Time is Always Now takes place in Museumsbygningen from 27-29th November. This year's participants are Souvanni Asmussen, Malene Birger & Lis Kasper, Anne Damgaard, Jonas Hvid Søndergaard, Iben Høj, Steen Ipsen, Stine Leth, Banja Rathnov Galleri & Kunsthandel, Grethe Sekel Kielberg, Råberi Over Hegnet, Lisbet Friis & Birgitte Lund, Superobjekt and Zilmers, who all represents classic virtues and crafts that are soon to be lost due to the advances in technology.

The fair presents a bouquet of contemporary expressions: design, art, ceramics, photography, poetry, fashion and crafts. The common denominator is the time in which we live - it is impressions of time formed into expressions.

Museumsbygningen will be converted into one large gesamtkunstwerk, where each participant contributes to the creation of a larger story about who we are and how the world looks right now. It is an artistic interpretation of our time - a scenographic tableau of today's feelings and thoughts.

Museumsbygningen was built in 1915 by millionaire and art collector Consul General Johan Hansen and functioned as a private exhibition space for Hansen's approximately 2,500 paintings. Since then, the National Gallery of Art and other institutions have held exhibitions, talks and events at the address. Today Museumsbygningen is run by Banja Rathnov.
